Test Case ID	Story ID	Description	Preconditions	Steps	Expected Result
TC1	1	Verify that a new user can sign up with an email address.	The new user is not already registered.	Go to sign-up page, enter email and other required details, submit the form.	The new user is registered and a confirmation email is sent.
TC2	2	Verify that a user can access trading simulations.	User is logged in.	Navigate to the simulations section, select a simulation to begin.	The trading simulation starts and user can interact with it.
TC3	3	Verify that risk management tools are accessible and functional.	User is logged in and has open trades.	Go to the risk management tools section, apply a risk management strategy.	The strategy is applied to the open trades, and the risks are updated accordingly.
TC4	4	Verify that a user can set up personalized learning paths.	User is logged in.	Go to the learning section, select topics of interest, save the learning path.	The personalized learning path is created based on the selected topics.
TC5	5	Verify real-time market data updates in simulations.	User is logged in and a simulation is in progress.	Observe the market data during the simulation.	The market data is updated in real-time within the simulation.
TC6	6	Verify the security of personal data handling.	User is logged in.	Navigate to account settings, check personal information storage and privacy settings.	All personal information is securely stored and privacy settings are configurable.